Select Poetry.

THE LITTLE BOY THAT DIED. Dr. Chalmers is said to be the author of the fellowing beautiful poem, written on the occasion of the death of a young son, whom he greatly loved:

I am all alone in my chamber now, And the midnight hour is near; And the fuggot's crack and clock's dull tick. Are all the sounds I hear; And over my soul, in its solitude, Sweet feelings of sadness glide, For my heart and my oyes are full when I think. Of the little boy that died.

I went one night to my father's house-Went home to the dear ones all-And softly I opened the garden gate, And softly the door of the hall. My mother came out to meet her son-She kissed me and then she sighed, And her head fell on my neck, and she wept

I shall miss him when the flowers come, In the garden where he played; I shall miss him more by the fireside, When the flowers have all decayed; I shall see his toys and his empty chair, And the horse he used to ride; And they will speak, with a silent speech, Of the little boy that died.

For the little boy that died.

We shall go home to our Father's house-To our Father's house in the skies, Where the hope of our souls shall have

Our love no broken ties: We shall roam the banks of the river of peace And bathe in its blissful tide; And one of the joys of our heaven shall b The little boy that died.
